Dear Sir,

Referring to my official letter to you of today's date I should feel much obliged if His Excellency would grant me permission to address Mr Law on the subject of the letter of the 29th April 1891 which Mr Scott says he holds. This is the first time such a letter has come under our notice & I think it might be as well to arrive at some further particulars regarding it.

Please also endeavour to let us have the Trust deed and other documents which I am sending for your inspection returned as early a date as possible as we may have occasion to require them at any time.

We return all papers which we have received from you by bi-days post.

I am Dear Sir
Yrs faithfully
James P. Chrystal.

Sir,

I am directed to state that out of Rs. 3,300/- including the special allotment of Rs. 500/- made for the purchase of books to the Chief Court Library for 1919-20, a sum of Rs. 900/- was set apart for the purchase of Cyclopaedia of American Law and Procedure and orders therefor were placed with the P.T.I. Book Depot, Bangalore so far back as 1st July 1919. The manager of the Book Depot states in his letter No. 1622, dated 28/29th June 1920 (copy enclosed for reference) that, for reasons beyond control, he could not supply the books in time and that he would send them very early and forwards a bill of costs for payment. As the books have not yet been received, payment cannot be made.

I am therefore to request that Government may be pleased to order this sum of Rs. 900/- to remain at the credit of the Chief Court for payment to the booksellers as soon as the books are received in addition to the allotment to be made for the contingencies and books for the next year. The allotment for 1920-21 will barely suffice for the ordinary expenditure of the year, and no amount could be spared therefrom for the books already ordered.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E Srinivasa Iyr

Letter No. 1622, dated 28/29th June 1920, from the Proprietor, P.T.I. Book Depot, Chamarajapet, Bangalore City, to the Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore, Bangalore.

With refefence to your letfer No. 844 of the 18th Instant regarding the supply of Cyclopaedia of American Law and Corpus Juris we have to apologise for the delay; but this was beyond control and unavoidable owing to the restrictions in freight and congestion in the American Ports besides strikes, etc, which had completely dislocated business for a considerable length of time. We have, however, heard from our suppliers that thc goods we cabled for would reach us very soon and we assure you that the same would be sent to you at the earliest moment.
